COVERED BRIDGE UPDATE

The Honey Run Covered Bridge Association continues to await word from their Attorney about their Fire Victim Trust (PG&E) claims—Bridge and Park. If full claims are received soon, construction could still resume in 2023. Otherwise, it will need to wait. Fundraising continues. Donations are welcome and can be made at hrcoveredbridge.org. Meanwhile, there is still time to register for the 3rd Annual Honey Run Covered Bridge Golf Tournament at Bailey Creek Golf Course, Lake Almanor, Saturday, June 3rd; go to hrcoveredbridge.org. Finally, we look forward to the 58th Annual Pancake Breakfast, 8-11am, Sunday, June 4. Come enjoy fun, friendship and food at the Covered Bridge Park.

WOULD YOU LIKE TO CONTRIBUTE TO THE 49er FAIR?

Hello Friends and Neighbors, our Forty Niner fair is fast approaching!

Do you possibly have something to contribute? We are in need of items for our Gift Sale. A gift card you will never use? An unused item? Art? Unique treasure?

We will have a Farmers Market Provisions Store for your home-made baked goods, jams, eggs and the like.

Our Vintage booth will need good gently used items that are looking for a new home.

Nancy O'Neill still has a few spots left for those artist types that would like to rent a booth to sell their wares.

Your help is needed. Fun volunteer spots are available in the kitchen, at the cold drinks booth, at the plant sale, BBQ station, parking and more... The shifts are generally 9-11, 11-1, 1-3. Please give Julia 530-521-8563, Darlene 530-801-1214 or Nancy 530-521-7930 a call with your availability to Volunteer or Donations.

Thank you all for making our canyon such a wonderful place to call home!
